

Dr hab. Adam F. Baran

- 1993, master, the Jan Kochanowski Higher School of Pedagogy [WSP], Kielce
- since 1994, teacher, Primary School No. 3, Tarnobrzeg
- 1997, post-graduate studies in computer science, the Commission of National Education Higher School of Pedagogy [WSP], Krakow
- 2000–2004, doctoral studies in history: the Council of the Faculty of Humanities [WNH] of the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin [KUL], Lublin
- 2002–2005 – pre-doctoral assistant at the Research Team of History of Eastern Territories (Department of Recent Political History), Institute of Political Studies of the Polish Academy of Sciences, [ISP PAN], Warsaw
- 2005, PhD in history, awarded by the Council of the Faculty of Humanities [WNH] of the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin [KUL], Lublin
- 2005–2011 – assistant professor at the Research Team of History of Eastern Territories of Second Republic of Poland (Department of Recent Political History), Institute of Political Studies Polish Academy of Sciences [ISP PAN], Warsaw
- 2011–2014 – assistant professor at the Department of History of Eastern Territories, the Institute of Political Studies PAS (Polish Academy of Sciences) [ISP PAN], Warsaw
- 2015, habilitation in history, awarded by the Council of the Faculty of Humanities [WNH] of the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin [KUL], Lublin
- since 2015, associate professor at the Department of History of Eastern Territories, Institute of Political Studies PAS (Polish Academy of Sciences) [ISP PAN], Warsaw